

Financial Freedom

Join Operation HOPE's 700 Credit Score Community

Take the first step toward financial freedom!

Operation HOPE has created the 700 Score Community program to assist individuals in raising their credit scores to a level where they have access to greater opportunities and are set on a path towards achieving their life goals.

Obtaining a 700+ credit score can allow you to:

- Buy a house
- Retire comfortably
- Secure loans for college
- Receive lower interest rates
- Secure gainful employment
- Qualify for credit cards and much more

Program features:

- Individual, group, and online counseling
- Free credit report analysis
- Credit score improvement support
- Budget planning assistance

IT'S FREE! None of the services listed above require any financial commitment, only your time! If these services sound interesting to you call us and we will be sure to point you in the right direction!
